

HDTV broadcasts should not be copy protected. Persons should not be restricted from delayed viewing/listening of information broadcast to their personal televisions/radios/computers. Consumers and individuals would lose much freedom and privacy by the enactment of a copy protection flag.